Dear Sutanto,

Uncover the latest breakthroughs in cancer research – for FREE!

Join us for The Landscape of Cancer Research: Advances in Immuno-oncology 2024 – a two-day online symposium taking place on June 19-20 featuring expert talks and discussions on:

- Engineering immune cells for cancer treatment
- Diagnostic testing in the role of precision oncology
- Deciphering metastasis through circulating tumor cell research
- Single-base-resolution sequencing for insights into current and future disease states
- Plus much more…

You will also be able to interact with leading speakers through live Q&A sessions and network with other participants in dedicated chat rooms.

The event is completely free! Can't attend live? Register now for access to the archived recording.
